RICHARD STREET STUDIOS IS YOUR CREATIVE SPACE

At the heart of Rochdale's developing creative cluster, with rail station, Metrolink and bus station on your doorstep - our studios are the perfect place to connect across our boroughs' thriving creative ecosystem.

Space for creatives, run by creatives.

Richard Street Studios is run by Rochdale-born creative production company 'Breaking Barriers' to support our boroughs creative community.

This is an exciting time for art and culture in Rochdale. As a Rochdale-based production company, Breaking Barriers are so proud to be the creative operators of Richard Street Studios; a space for artists to create, imagine and make in our hometown. Richard Street Studios is an investment in the developing creative economy of our town, as well as future generations of creative innovators.

I share the space with other creatives: painters, performers, musicians - and that quiet creative energy rubs off on you. Being around different types of makers gives you fresh ideas, it keeps things interesting, it makes you better at your own craft.
